

environment

count me in!

Everyone has the right to clean air, clean water and clean earth. Without them, we face illness and other health problems. Belonging in a clean environment adds to our health and to our community — yours, ours, everybody's.

Environment influences health.

