

equity

count me in!

Equality and cultural respect enrich our lives in many ways – jobs, services, even our health. When we belong in society, it's easier to cope with illness, stress and despair. Equity means better health and a stronger community — yours, ours, everybody's.

Equity enhances health.

